

25 WATER GAMES FOR KIDS

Make your summer funner with MommyPoppins.com

- ☐ Water balloons! Fill, toss, and splash!
- ☐ Host a water bucket race. Try not to spill.
- ☐ Play Twister – with the sprinkler on.
- ☐ Create a DIY water slide with a plastic tablecloth.
- ☐ Paint with water on slate remnants or stones.
- ☐ Aim for the bulls-eye with a soaked sponge.
- ☐ Do the limbo under the garden hose.
- ☐ Play Duck, Duck, Goose in a kiddie pool.
- ☐ Use squirt guns to race (and propel) bath toys.
- ☐ Fill up mini spray bottles for a soaking game of tag.
- ☐ Bring baby's bath time outdoors to the kiddie pool.
- ☐ Write your names on the pavement with water blasters.
- ☐ Make a water pinata by tying water balloons together.
- ☐ Try float science: Will the object sink or float?
- ☐ Pass the ice cube down the line. First to melt it wins.
- ☐ Set up a soapy bucket for a toy wash station. Win-win.
- ☐ Freeze small toys into ice cubes and then excavate them.
- ☐ Stack sponges together with rubber bands; soak them in water and toss!
- ☐ Cut plastic milk cartons in half, creating a "glove" to catch water balloons.
- ☐ Turn a roll of tinfoil into a foil river for plastic ducks and boats.
- ☐ Make the ultimate DIY sprinkler with four pieces of PVC and a hose connector.
- ☐ Play water bean bag toss by throwing sponges or bean bags onto Frisbees floating in the pool.
- ☐ Bounce and balance water balloons on an old sheet with kids holding each corner.
- ☐ Taste test summer treats – blindfolded – like popsicles, strawberries, snap peas, and watermelon.
- ☐ Ping-pong pool: Toss ping-pong balls into the center of an inner tube positioned in a wading pool.

Details for these activities & lots more at MommyPoppins.com/WaterGames